Win markets & win bets explained

Total wins is part of the WDW (Win Draw Win) market, so you're picking a team to win the game in 90mins (+ added stoppage/injury time).

If you're betting on a win market, consider researching the team's home form vs their away form.

How to bet on win markets

Every sportsbook or betting firm will offer the WDW market and it's as simple as picking either the home team or the away team to win.

You can't bet on anyone to lose in this market, that's a different type of bet.

Check out our home win predictions page for win tips or to see the probability of a home win result.
