Is it illegal to buy Google reviews?

Read our Full Review Here >>>

Can you pay someone to write a review? There's no federal agency for buying Google review material. The FTC can determine if the reviewer has paid for their services and may fine you excessive fees for that as well.

Can businesses buy fake Google reviews?

The above picture shows you that ratings are very dangerous if you use these services. A FTC investigation revealed businesses had paid unreported fees to Google for revealing the information about the review sites, and also said that the company had been charged with a retaliatory violation.

The best customer experience will give you five-star reviews on Google without causing misunderstanding. We're looking at 5 ways to increase your ratings without spending anything.

You could tell between fake and genuine customer feedback. Companies that provide untrue 5-star ratings risk losing customers.
