However, having streaks of good or bad cards is possible.

There will be streaks of heads and streaks of tails.

One of the best tips we can provide you with today is to pick games that use as few card decks as possible.

Although many people could swear that card counting can work well when using few er card decks to play online blackjack, you need to remember that card counting doesn't work when you're playing online.

This is because the casino employs the service of a Random Number Generator, so the decks of cards are automatically re-shuffled after each hand.

Remember that many online casinos offer different variants of the game of online blackjack.
