What are WhatsApp Scams?

How to avoid WhatsApp scams

Don't respond to WhatsApp messages asking you to share a verification code. Tap "Report" again.

Scroll all the way down and select "Report";

Your WhatsApp account may be hacked if you click on a malicious link from an unknown contact or share data with a criminal unintentionally. To reduce the chances of someone else accessing your account, set up two-step verification through your account settings.

There are several ways to steer clear of WhatsApp scams, such as being wary of messages asking for money.
