Specifically how aggressive should I be on the lower end of the deck.

In this case if I have 13 and the dealer is showing a 3 what is the right play? The book says stay in this situation.

In the past 1' ve always followed that advice without any question since in general I play a conservative game and it basically made sense.

2/3 and ended up on the losing end more often than not.

a dealer showing 3 as the book recommends.

So in this situation I have >60% chance of staying in the hand when taking a card vs.

My odds of improving my hand to a quality hand (18+) are 31%.

It says in al-Mawsu'ah al-Fiqhiyyah (23/171): Betting or wagering may mean s everal things, one of which is taking risks.

And Allah is the source of strength.

May Allah send blessings and peace upon our Prophet Muhammad and his family and companions.

This betting comes under the heading of gambling, of which Allah, may He be exalted, says (interpretation of the meaning):

What this refers to is gambling, such as saying: If such and such happens, then

I owe you such and such, and if such and such happens, then you owe me such and such, or if So and so comes, you owe me such and such, but if he does not come,

I owe you such and such, or if what you have is a stone or gold or whatever the issue that they are arguing about and betting on is.
