Popular Types of NBA Betting Moneyline Bets

The underdog Bulls would have +180 odds. This type of bet requires you to make an accurate prediction about the combined score of both teams.

You would select the UNDER if you believe it will be 224 points or less.

Usually, you would pool straight-up bets with spreads and totals.

Let's say you pick the Warriors (-200) and the 76ers (-150) both to win.

Timing is important, too, so if you see a bet you like at great value, snag it before the public hammers it in the same direction.
